"I can fully recommend Saffron Strings! Great music, very easy communication - just perfect!!!! Ladies, your lovely music make our special day just more beautiful ! "

Mrs Joanna Wlasak

"Ourselves and our wedding guests were so impressed with the standard of music. The music created a lovely atmosphere on the day & it was incredible to walk down the aisle to traditional music during our outside ceremony. I was also very impressed with the quick response from any queries that I had. I would definitely recommend Saffron Strings."

Mrs Lucie Impett (Ash)

"Saffron Strings were very helpful in the run up to our wedding as we were struggling to choose songs for our ceremony. Lorraine gave us a variety of options based on the style of music we wanted and songs that would compliment them. The duet were fantastic on the day, I couldn't have asked for more."

Mrs Louise McClurg

"From start to finish, they were so helpful and they made our day so special. The music they played was so moving and we would not hesitate to recommended them"

Mr Richard Manston

"Professional, communication running up to the day was excellent, they were very professional and blended in completely on the day! Their music was beautiful and really made our ceremony and reception drinks special."

Mrs Charlotte Willis (Lallis)

"The quality of service we received from Saffron Strings was amazing. They were so easy to deal with and catered unbelievably well to our unique request to play James Bond music. They did not require us to provide them with any additional material and were an absolute pleasure to deal. On the day the quality of their music was amazing, the comments we received from our guests were fantastic, they leave a brilliant impression on everyone."

Mrs Olivia Pinkarchevski

"The whole experience from beginning to end was very pleasurable. Everything was made easy; no fuss or problems, just good advice and flexibility as to content. All the members were pleasant, well turned out appropriate to the occasion and totally professional in attitude . The music was nicely modulated so as not to be intrusive and the guests had nothing but high praise for the standard of playing. It should be mentioned that there were other musicians among the guests. Thank you S.Strings"

Mr Roy Green

"Saffron Strings were fantastic from start to finish. They played a beautiful mixture of classical pieces in the service, and contemporary pieces with the welcome drinks. Excellent communication throughout, and a very honest service. Thank you for helping make my dream day a reality."

Mrs Sarah Perks (Richards)

"All of our guests commented on how lovely it was to have this music in the back ground of the ceremony and during the drinks reception. They played a great mix of classics and up to date music so it was perfect for all ages. They also found a song we wanted at very short notice to play during the ceremony."
